

Issues
in dealing with Post Agency
Bombers Not available?
Costs for oil & saddles
are higher

CHILD CARE AT THE GOVERNMENT WORK PLACE

Table of Contents

	Page
Foreword
Acknowledgements
I. Introduction	1
The Development of This Manual	3
Current Child Care Efforts in the Government	4
The Alliance for Child Care in Federal Agencies	9
II. Getting Started: Gathering Support	10
Strategies for Establishing Support for Child Care	11
Establishing the Climate of Acceptance for Child Care	12
Establishing the Legal Legitimacy for Government Support of Child Care	14
Establishing That the Group Proposing To Organize the Center is Worthy of Support	17
Documenting That There is a Need for Child Care	19
Techniques of Designing and Conducting Surveys	20
III. The Establishment of An Administrative Structure	23
The Identification of the Population to be Served	23
Options in Choosing an Administrative Structure	24
The Organization of a Board of Directors	26
The Delineation of Board/Staff Responsibilities	29
IV. Legal Issues in the Establishment of Child Care Centers	31
The Incorporation Process	32
Not for Profit and Tax Exempt Status	33
Steps in the Incorporation/Tax Exempt Process	36
Regulatory Issues	37
Other Legal Concerns	38
The Need for An Attorney	39
V. Acquiring Appropriate Space for A Center	41
Control of Government Space	42
Identification of Available Space	42
Authorization for the Granting of Space for Child Care	44
Options for Covering Rental and Maintenance Costs	45
Determining the Amount of Rent	47
OMB Oversight of Space Usage	48
Designing Appropriate Space	49
VI. The Costs of Quality Care	50
The Budget as the Program's Goal Statement	50
Types of Budgets	50
Major Budget Considerations	52
Developing the Budget--The Expense Side	57
Developing the Budget--The Income Side	62

VI.	Methods of Reducing Fees	63
	Adjusting Fees According to Income	64
	Sample Day Care Budget	68
VII.	Defraying Child Care Costs: Using Other Resources	69
	Major Resources for Child Care	70
	Federal Government Resources	70
	HEW and HUD Authority	70
	Title XX Resources	71
	The Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA)	73
	The Child Care Food Program	74
	Community Resources	75
	Foundations	76
	Research and Demonstration Projects	76
VIII.	Child Recruitment, Selection and Enrollment	78
	Attracting Children	78
	Enrollment Policies	79
	Enrollment Procedures and Forms	81
IX.	Conclusions
	Footnotes
X.	Appendices
	I. Sample Surveys
	II. Listing of Current Federal Child Care Centers
	III. Women's Bureau Publications on Child Care
	IV. Other Useful Publications
	V. Resources	